News & Highlights from Academic Affairs

Academic Affairs welcomes the University Press of Kansas to our monthly newsletter. Check out their latest bestseller, Expedition of Thirst: Exploring Breweries, Wineries, and Distilleries across the Heart of Kansas and Missouri, downtown at The Raven Bookstore.

Stuart A. Day, Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs

---

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

International students are leaders across campus. Learn about their myriad and significant contributions to the KU community here.
UNIVERSITY PRESS OF KANSAS

Have questions about book publishing? Your University Press is available to offer the advice you have been looking for—submit your questions here.

GRADUATE STUDIES

The newly created Self Graduating Senior Fellowship provides both scholarship funding and support for leadership and career development. The deadline for nominations is Feb. 8.

CENTER FOR ONLINE AND DISTANCE LEARNING

CODL is offering a 30-minute webinar titled “Collaborative Learning in an Online Environment” February 9 at 12:30. Zoom in!

LIED CENTER OF KANSAS

The Lied Center is partnering with the Lawrence Schools Foundation to produce the second annual Ovation! USD 497 Talent Show on Sunday, January 21.

SPENCER MUSEUM OF ART

New flags are flying on Jayhawk Boulevard as part of the nationwide public art project Pledges of Allegiance.
UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Find your golden ticket at the University Career Fair on February 7.

KU Academic Affairs: Empowering students from diverse backgrounds to become socially responsible and civically engaged global citizens.

academicaffairs@ku.edu | (785) 864-4904 | academicaffairs.ku.edu

1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Strong Hall 250, Lawrence, KS 66045