

Sent: Friday, September 1, 2017 9:52 AM

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

News & Highlights from Academic Affairs

We hope you will take a few moments to explore these updates from the areas that comprise Academic Affairs at KU.

*Thanks,
Stuart A. Day, Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs*

SPENCER MUSEUM OF ART

"Magenta Colored Girl" by Carrie Mae Weems selected as this year's KU Common Work of Art

UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Join us for food, games, and photos as we celebrate the reopening of Summerfield Hall on 9/14 from 2:30 – 5:00

GRADUATE STUDIES

Graduate Military Programs welcomes eight recipients of this year's Wounded Warriors Scholarships

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Visit our redesigned website to discover the wealth of internationalization resources available

CENTER FOR ONLINE AND DISTANCE LEARNING

Come to Budig 4 to create innovative video content for online teaching in our upgraded media production studio

LIED CENTER OF KANSAS

Lied Across Kansas represents the Lied Center's statewide outreach efforts through the performing arts

KU Academic Affairs: Empowering students from diverse backgrounds to become socially responsible and civically engaged global citizens

academicaffairs@ku.edu | 785-864-4904 | academicaffairs.ku.edu

1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Strong Hall 250, Lawrence, KS 66045